1734.—Order of the Privy Council relating to the antient dies, &c.

(B:3; 1. p. 324.)

At the House inhabited by the Usher of the Exchequer at Westminster the 15th of August 1734.

Present.

Lord Chancellor	Earl of Godolphin
Lord President	M^r^ Chancellor of the Exchequer
Lord Chamberlain	S^r^ William Strickland
Duke of Newcastle

The Lords of his Majestys most Honorable Privy Council, meeting this day for the Tryal of his Majestys Coins in the Pix of the Mint, M^r Lawton, one of the Deputy Chamberlains of his Majestys Exchequer, informed their Lordships, that there was a box kept in one of the Treasury rooms in the Cloysters in Westminster Abby, which was sealed up, and had a labell affixed to it, whereon was wrote as follows viz.

> " The things contained in this Box were formerly in the > " Old Cordoval bag which being rotted they were put
> " here in presence of the Right Honorable the Lords of
> " the Privy Council 16: July 1696."

Whereupon their Lordships thought proper to order, that the proper officers should immediately bring the said box before them which being accordingly done, their Lordships directed the said box to be opened in their presence; and there appearing to be several old stamps of coins, dyes, seales, assays, pieces of metal, and other things relating to the coinage, contained therein, their Lordships do therefore hereby order, that the Auditor and Chamberlains of his Majestys Exchequer, or their Deputys, do make a schedule of all the things contained in the said box, and lay the same together with the said box and things contained therein, before their Lordships at the Council Chamber at the Cockpit Whitehall.

And the said M^r Lawton having informed their Lordships, that there are in his custody several stamps of coins, weights and other things relating to the old coinage, which were found when the Gateway at the end of S^t Margarets Lane was pulled down; their Lordships do therefore hereby further order, that the said Auditor and Chamberlains or their Deputys, do likewise make a schedule of the said stamps of coins &c^a. and lay the same together with the said stamps &c^a. before their Lordships, at the same time, they shall lay the schedule and box aforementioned.
